XA Holiday Spotlights

The Xbox Ambassadors Holidays were an opportunity for the community to showcase their creativity and love for both gaming and their holidays.

Check some of our top entries!

PalmettoBling	Wife got me a felt Emmet Otter for Christmas from Emmet Otter’s Jug-Band Christmas because I love that movie, and so he now hangs at the top of the tree every year.

Mistress Sara	My tree decor varies every year depending on who is coming over. This year I went for a small tree and put my little plushies on it. Had the Kinectables polar bear (lowere right) on guard with the Coke bear (lower left) and penguin (center, wearing scarf and white beanie hat). Sometimes the Misfit Toys are around the tree.

If you want to take a look at all spotlightees, make sure to check our Xbox Ambassadors Blog.

Season 32 recap

Let’s also recap some memorable moments that made our last season, the season of The Traveler, unforgettable:

1. Community Events in the XA Discord Server: In Season 32, Ambassadors helped celebrate Halloween and the holiday season with event channels, discussed ways to make the XA Pledge real day-to-day, and met up virtually via playdate events. As we look to add new events and channels to the XA Discord server going forward, be sure to let us know what you’d like to see in the Season 32 Satisfaction Survey found on your Quests page!
2. Impactful Feedback: Some Ambassadors shared valuable feedback and insights that played an important role in shaping the future of gaming inside Xbox. Your voices have been heard, and together, we’ve made a difference on the Xbox Ambassadors Research Panel. If you want to get more involved in these and other exclusive opportunities to connect with Team Xbox, visit the Xbox Ambassador Research Panel registration form and join the Xbox Ambassador Research Panel.
3. Knowledge Check Quests: We brought back our knowledge checks to give our current Quests a more fun and interactive way to engage and demonstrate your knowledge on specific topics. If you haven’t already, visit the official Xbox Ambassadors website and log in into your account to try it out yourself!

As we bid farewell to Season 32, we can’t help but feel a sense of anticipation and excitement for what lies ahead in Season 33.
